We do not sell

Gold Dollars

—FOR—92 Cts.

And yet some people would believe such a thing possible. What we will do, however, is to give you full value for every dollar spent with us.

One Dollar spent at our store goes a long ways.

Read some of the prices and don't let them prejudice your mind, but come and see with your own two eyes and you will say, it pays to go down town to trade.

Examine our all wool flannel dress goods at 30 cents per yard.

All shades of double width Tricots, at 57½ cts. We have marked down all of our 25c worsteds to 15 cents.

Double width flannel dress goods at 48½c. Just received 1000 yards of Hamburg Edgings—exquisite patterns, only 12½c for any you may select. Finer than we ever sold.

Have you seen those lovely hats, straw and felt—New York style?

Examine our French kid button boot at $1.75. It beats the town.

Examine our Ladies' wool Vests at 50c and 98c—best quality.

Examine those Ladies' linen handkerchiefs 3 for 25c; a bargain.

Fine, regular made, Ladies' hose warranted fast black at 18c a pair. Best Balbriggan hose at 25c.

We have Ball's celebrated corset; the best in the world.

A new lot of decorated china and glassware on exhibition this week.

We would advise you to CALL EARLY.

"First come, first served."

THE LIVE,
LOW PRICE HOUSE OF EDENTON, N. C.

Entered at the Post Office at Edenton as Second-Class Matter.

Scales and Plants.

The weather is delightful. More buildings needed in Edenton. Fine assortment of Christmas Toys just arrived at O. Newman's.

We ate our Thanksgiving dinner with a friend who gave us turkey. How we did eat!

Miss Vette Bunch, one of Chowan's fair daughters, is visiting friends this week in the city.

The Albemarle Enquirer, under a mortgage given by its owner, will be sold to-day by public sale.

Great change in the Ten-Pin Alley. Advantage to the players. Call at Hayes and get information.

We had a call this week from a gentleman who wishes to lease a farm near Edenton and settle in our midst.

Hayes holds a red cow with white stripe down back, which was mired in his lot. Owner will please call.

Two fights on Thursday morning. Parties engaged in them, we hear, will be taken before the Mayor to-day.

The marriage fever seems to be quite contagious now in Edenton. Several others, we hear, will soon march to the altar.

The band was out serenading the two brides and grooms and other friends. The boys never fail to take advantage of moonlight nights.

Our merchants all deserve much credit for closing on yesterday; especially those who closed Wednesday night and would not open until this morning.

FOR SALE, and at prices low—Five Mules, three good Brood Mares and three Colts, 3 and 4 years old, all broke and good drivers. Apply to J. E. Bonner & Co.

Oysters cheaper at Hayes' than any house in town.—Fried in cracker dust and butter for only 25c—best we ever ate.—Fresh milk and winter greens can be had daily at Hayes'.

The charming and fascinating Miss Pattie Sanderlin, of E. City, attended the marriage of Miss Gilbert, and, to the delight of her many admiring friends, she will remain in the city for several days.

Yesterday, being holiday, seemed to be a good day for riding. Every young man with his lady-love and the old as well, were out in full force. Not a conveyance could be hired in the afternoon. The day was a lovely one.

Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Bush will visit the people at their homes and places of business to-day for the purpose of soliciting contributions to the Orphanage at Thomasville, N. C. This is a good work and we hope the ladies will receive every encouragement.

We are glad to state that Mr. Aug. Holly, who received severe injuries from a fall at his gin house last week, is improving rapidly and will soon be out again. Mr. Holly has many friends in Edenton who will doubtless read this with interest. He is a very popular man in the county especially of the upper township.

Special attention is called to the advertisement of the Gloucester Net & Twine Co. in this issue. This company is an old, reliable one, and at its head stands Mr. Wm. Stowe, President, who is well and most favorably known by the Albemarle fishermen as a high-toned and thorough business man and a gentleman in every way worthy of confidence. Read the ad.

The immense success experienced in the Oyster trade this season enables me to furnish my patrons and friends at rates cheap and within the reach of all. Twenty-five cents per quart. Fresh from Norfolk daily. Buying in large quantities I can afford to sell cheap. Full pint oysters stewed 25c. Full fry (in cracker dust and butter) 25c. Give me a call. Satisfaction guaranteed. R. B. Hayes, King street, Edenton, N. C.

MARRIED.

At the residence of the bride's mother Miss Sallie Gilbert and Mr. W. H. Butt Wednesday evening the 23rd at 7:30 o'clock, by Rev. F. M. Satterwhite. May the sun of happiness shed its joyous rays in continuous profusion upon their conjugal pathway, and may the God of the righteous delight to bless their union.

CHOWAN AND PERQUIMANS JOIN HANDS.

On Wednesday, bright and we trust ominous, the Sheriff of Chowan, James C. Warren, Esq., was united in marriage with Miss Pattie T. Wood, daughter of Col. Charles Wood, of Perquimans. The ceremony, beautiful and impressive, was performed by Rev. R. B. Drane of St. Pauls, Edenton. Miss Emma C. Skinner presided at the organ in her usual felicitous manner and the whole affair was as charming as the most exultant could hope.

We extend congratulations and with them a welcome for Mrs. Warren to the society of Edenton in which she will doubtless become a lovely and most indispensable charm.

THANKSGIVING!

THE DAY KEPT IN EDENTON.

BUSINESS HOUSES ALL CLOSED—SERVICE AT THE CHURCHES, ETC.

Thanksgiving day in Edenton was universally observed. Every store, save one, was closed in season. Every school house, grocery, the Fisherman & Farmer office and some of the bar rooms were also closed. Labor was generally suspended and thankful people, in obedience to the expressed wishes of their noble President and most respected Governor, were seen wending their way to their accustomed places of worship where prayer and praise were offered with becoming zeal and reverence.

At St. Paul's the congregation was large, the services most excellent and the sermon appropriate and encouraging.

At the Baptist Church the excellent Pastor, Mr. Satterwhite, assisted by Rev. Jos. Bond, held appropriate service. We have heard the speech of Mr. Bond spoken of with great praise by the worthy and appreciative.

At the M. E. Church Rev. J. Wm. Lee excelled himself in a discourse which captured his entire audience holding them spell-bound for more than an hour.

The day passed off quietly and will long be remembered as the best observed Thanksgiving; appointment ever kept by our people.

THANKSGIVING AT E. CITY.

E. CITY, Nov. 24.—Thanksgiving is generally observed in this city. Every house of business closed. Services in all of the churches. Large congregations turned out. The town is as quiet as Sunday.

THANKSGIVING AT HERTFORD.

HERTFORD, Nov. 24.—The day here is generally observed. Business suspended. Service at the churches.

THANKSGIVING ON A FARM.

On yesterday morning, at the farm of Mr. Moses Hobbs, near Edenton, two colored women got into a dispute which resulted in one having her head split with an axe. She was brought to town immediately and the wound dressed by Dr. Coke. At this writing she is doing well.

BACK AGAIN!

The undersigned having returned to Edenton and opened the same saloon on Main street as occupied last season, gives notice that they will keep a fresh supply of

NORFOLK OYSTERS

on hand during the entire season, which will be served in any style desired—Stewed, Fried, on Half Shell or by Measure, in any quantity and at very low prices. Thanking for past favors and soliciting further patronage, we are Yours, &c., Caskie & Chamberlain.

SCHOOL NOTICE.

EDENTON N. C., July 28, 1887.

To the Public:—We are glad to announce that Mr. F. P. Hall, a graduate of Davidson College, N. C., and a teacher of successful experience, will on the 1st Monday in October next, open a School in Edenton for boys and girls. The terms will be reasonable and will be published later.

Mr. Hall brings with him the very highest endorsements, as a gentleman and a teacher. He is employed by a number of citizens, who feel the need of increased educational advantages in Edenton and whose ONLY purpose is to promote that object. No means will be spared to make the school a success. We have been appointed to make the announcement and to ask the patronage and good will of our people for the School.

W. D. Pruden, T. B. Bland, Jno. C. Bond, J. R. B. Hathaway, Edward Wood, Committee.

THE EDENTON GRADED SCHOOL.

Fall Term Ending Dec. 3, 1887.

PROF. L. A. WILLIAMS, Principal. MRS. R. F. CHESHIRE, Assistant. MISS M. A. THOMPSON, Teachers.

RATES:	ANNUAL:	QUARTERLY:
First Grade,	$10.00,	$3.00.
Second "	$16.00,	$4.50.
Third "	$20.00,	$6.00.
Fourth "	$30.00,	$8.00.

Charges are made from date of entrance. Proper deductions for protracted illness. The next term of this School will begin December 5th, 1887.

A special feature of the law incorporating our school is that every resident patron is credited with the Public funds apportioned to his children under the school law of the State.

Resident children who are dependent upon the Public School funds for education are received into the School at any time without charge.

This school and system offers the best educational advantages attainable in Edenton. By dividing pupils of several grades of advancement, among teachers employed for each grade, better and more efficient instruction is obtained at less cost than can be had otherwise.

Pupils from other districts are invited to enter the School at above rates of instruction, and they can obtain good board at moderate prices.

By order of the board of Trustees of the Edenton Graded School, Oct., 1887. B. F. ELLIOTT, President. T. C. BADHAM, Sec. pro tem.

NOW IS YOUR CHANCE!

My immense fall & winter stock is perfect!

I have received the largest and handsomest line of bright, new and seasonable dress goods, trimmings, wraps, notions, underwear, hats, shoes, boots, and men's, youths' and boys' clothing ever shown here.

Everything is fresh from the northern markets, selected by myself to suit the requirements of my customers. Many will wonder at the extraordinary which everything is marked down to.

All sorts of theories will be advanced, but I have only one reply for all

CASH DID IT!

Ready money is the wonderful lever which overturned high prices.

And cash will secure the choice of all the wonderful bargains of which I mention a few below:

Red flannel Drawers and Shirts, $1.25; red Fannel, all wool, 20c and 25 cents a yard; heavy Undershirts, from 25c up; heavy twill Cottons, 8c; heavy brown Cottons, 5c; yard wide Bleaching, 6c; Corsets, 25c; striped and plain Velvets, in all colors, 40c; worth 75c; men's, ladies' and children's Hose, 5c; Calicoes, nice Patterns, 4c; plain Calicoes in all colors, 6c; Bed-Ticking, 8c; pure linen Toweling, 6c; ladies' rubber Coats, 75c; woman's everyday Shoes, 80c, worth $1.00; also men's, ladies' and children's Shoes, lower than elsewhere; men's Derby Hats, brown and black, 75c, worth $1.50; men's Slouch Hats, 50c, worth $1.00; boys' Hats, 20 cents; heavy winter Pants, $1.00, worth $2.50; boys' knee Pants, 4-12 years, from 25c up; men's Suits, from $8.50 up, worth $7.50; men's cheviot Suits, $7.50, worth $12.50; men's fine square cut dress Suits, $12.50, worth $25.00; boys Suits, from $2.00 up; men's Overcoats, from $3.00 up. Trunks, Valices, Accordions, Harps and many other things too numerous to mention.

I have bargains in every department and invite an examination of my goods and prices.

Respectfully,

O. NEWMAN,

Perkins' Old Stand—Cheap Side—MAIN STREET.
